STATUTES.

CHAPTER I.

THE PRESIDENT.

§ 1. The President shall have charge of the educational administration of the University, and shall be the Chairman of the University Council, and of every Faculty established by the Trustees. He shall preside at all Commencements, and shall sign all diplomas for degrees duly conferred. Powers.

He shall preside at meetings of the University Council, and of the several Faculties, and his concurrence shall be necessary to every act of each of such bodies; unless, after his non-concurrence, the act or resolution shall be again passed by a vote of two-thirds of the entire body at the same or at the next succeeding meeting thereof.

In all cases where there shall be a non-concurrence between the President and a majority of the Council or Faculty present at the time, the names of those voting on each side shall be entered on the minutes, and each member shall be entitled to have entered on the minutes his reasons for his vote.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the President to take charge and have care of the University generally, of its buildings, of its grounds adjacent thereto, and of its movable property upon the same; Duties.

To call meetings of the University Council, and of the several Faculties, and to give such directions and perform such acts as shall, in his judgment, promote the interests of the University, so that they do not contravene the Charter, the Statutes, or the resolutions of the Trustees, or of the Council or Faculties;

To report to the Trustees annually, on the first Monday in October, and as occasion shall require, the condition and needs of the University;

To administer discipline in the case of a violation by a student of any rule or regulation other than those adopted by a Faculty.

§ 3. In the absence or disability of the President, pending action by the Trustees, the Dean who has been longest Acting President.

Acting President. in office, who shall be in the regular performance of his duties, shall perform the duties and exercise the authority of the President; provided that when two or more Deans have served an equal length of time in such office, such powers and duties shall devolve upon that one of them who has been longest in the service of the University.

Leave of Absence. § 4. In the case of professors absent on leave, the President shall have power to make such temporary arrangements for the work of the University as he may deem proper, provided that no expenditure shall be incurred beyond the limit of half-pay waived in each case by the absent professor, and provided, further, that no part of such funds shall be used to give additional pay to any one already in the service of the University. The President shall report the details of every such arrangement at the next meeting of the Trustees.

The President shall also have power to grant leave of absence for reasonable cause, and for such length of time as he shall judge the occasion may require. Such leave of absence shall be entered upon the minutes of the appropriate Faculty.

Degrees. § 5. The President shall have power, when the requirements of the Statutes have been satisfactorily fulfilled, to confer degrees as follows:

a. The degree of Bachelor of Arts, upon the recommendation of the Faculty of the College;

b. The professional and technical degrees of Bachelor of Laws, upon the recommendation of the Faculty of Law; Doctor of Medicine, upon the recommendation of the Faculty of Medicine; and Bachelor of Science, Engineer of Mines, Civil Engineer, Metallurgical Engineer, Electrical Engineer, and Mechanical Engineer, upon the recommendation of the Faculty of Applied Science.

c. The degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Laws, and Doctor of Philosophy, upon the recommendation of the University Council.

CHAPTER II.

THE UNIVERSITY COUNCIL.

Membership. § 1. The University Council shall consist of the President, the Deans of the several University Faculties, and of a representative chosen from and by each such Faculty for the term of three years (who shall be eligible for re-election), and of the Dean and Secretary of the College, ex officio.

The term "University Faculties" shall be deemed to include all the Faculties, except the Faculty of the College.

The term of office of an elected representative of any University Faculty in the University Council shall begin on July first and run for a period of three years. Any elections held during such term shall be for the unexpired portion of the term.

Term of Office.

§ 2. The Council (subject to the reserved power of control by the Trustees) shall have power, and it shall be its duty, in all matters not referred by statute to the President or the several Faculties:

Powers.

a. To fix and determine the conditions upon which the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Laws, and Doctor of Philosophy shall be conferred, and to recommend candidates for such degrees;

b. To secure the correlation of courses offered by the several University Faculties, with a view to increasing the efficiency and enlarging the range of University work; to encourage original research; to adjust all questions involving more than one Faculty;

c. To make such recommendations, both to the Trustees and to the several Faculties, concerning the educational administration of the University as may seem to it proper, and to advise the President upon such matters as he may bring before it;

d. To prescribe the form of the Commencement exercises and to select the speakers;

e. To appoint all Fellows and to make rules for their government, subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by the Statutes or by the terms upon which the several Fellowships are established.

§ 3. No exercise of the powers conferred upon the Council, which involves a change in the educational policy of the University in respect to the requirements of admission, the course of study, or the conditions of graduation, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted to the Trustees at one meeting, and another meeting of the Trustees shall have been held subsequent to that at which it was submitted.

Limitation of Powers.

§ 4. The Council may invite a representative of the Faculties of the General Protestant Episcopal and of the Union Theological Seminaries, respectively, to sit with it, with power to advise only.

Representation of Seminaries.

§ 5. The Council shall meet at least once a month during the academic year, and special meetings shall be held on the call of the President. In the absence of the President the Council shall elect a temporary Chairman.

Meetings.

CHAPTER III.

THE FACULTIES.

Powers. § 1. The several Faculties (subject to the reserved power of control by the Trustees and the provisions of the Statutes) shall have power and it shall be their duty in the College and in their respective Schools:

a. To fix the requirements of admission, the course of study, and the conditions of graduation;

b. To establish rules for ascertaining the proficiency of students, and for the assignment of honors;

c. To establish the rules of conduct to be observed by the students;

d. To fix the times of examinations other than the entrance and final examinations;

e. To prepare and publish from time to time a statement of the course of study, specifying the studies to be pursued in each year, and in each of the departments of instruction;

f. To make all such regulations of their own proceedings, and for the better government of the College and their respective Schools, as shall not contravene the Charter of the corporation, the Statutes, or any resolution of the Trustees or Council.

Limitation of Powers.

§ 2. No exercise of the powers conferred on any of the Faculties, which involves a change in the educational policy of the University in respect to the requirements of admission, the course of study, or the conditions of graduation, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted to the Trustees at one meeting, and another meeting shall have been held subsequent to that at which it was submitted.

Deans.

§ 3. Each Faculty shall elect from among its own members a Dean, who shall hold office for a term of five years, and who shall be eligible for re-election, but he shall receive no additional compensation for his services in such office. The Dean shall be the executive officer of the Faculty, and it shall be his duty to report to the President annually, and as occasion shall require, the conditions and needs of the departments included in such Faculty. It shall also be his duty to enforce its rules and regulations and those of the Trustees and Council so far as they relate to the Faculty represented by him. In the absence of the President the Dean shall preside at meetings of the Faculty. In the absence of the Dean the Faculty may elect an acting Dean, who shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Dean. Nothing herein contained shall affect the compensation or term of office of any person now holding the office of Dean.

Deans.

The term of office of a Dean shall begin on July first and run for a period of five years. Any elections held during such a term shall be for the unexpired portion of the term. No Dean holding office March 1, 1895, shall be affected by this provision in such a way as to shorten his term of office.

Term of Office.

§ 4. The Dean of each Faculty shall, with the approval of the President, administer discipline in the case of violation by a student of the rules and regulations of such Faculty.

Discipline.

§ 5. Each Faculty shall elect a Secretary, who shall perform the usual duties of a recording officer, shall issue notices of meetings, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the President or the Dean of his Faculty. The Secretary shall receive no additional compensation for his services in such office. Nothing herein contained shall affect the term of office or compensation of any person now holding the office of Secretary.

Secretaries.

§ 6. Each Faculty shall meet at least once a month during the academic year, unless otherwise directed by the President, and special meetings shall be held on the call of the President, or, in his absence, of the Dean.

Meetings.

§ 7. Each Faculty shall keep a book of minutes of its proceedings, which shall be submitted by the President at meetings of the Trustees.

Minutes.

§ 8. The Faculty of the College or of any School may invite other officers of instruction in the University to take part in their deliberations, but only the professors and adjunct professors who are members of such Faculty shall have the right to vote.

Right to Vote.

§ 9. At each meeting of the several Faculties, the President, or, in his absence, the acting chairman, shall read, for the information of the Faculty, so much of the printed summary of resolutions adopted by the Trustees at their last preceding meeting as he may deem material.

Resolutions of the Trustees.

§ 10. Officers of instruction shall be required to be in attendance at the University during the academic year, unless excused by the President or absent on leave.

Attendance.

§ 11. Appointments of all officers of instruction, other than professors and adjunct professors, shall be made by the Faculties severally of the College or of the School in which Appointments.

Appoint-ments. such officers are to serve, subject to confirmation by the Trustees ; except that to fill vacancies in such offices caused by death, resignation, or any emergency, the President may make appointments subject to like confirmation. The number of such officers and the amount of their compensation shall be determined in advance by the Trustees.

Grades of Office. § 12. The following grades of office shall be recognized in all appointments as ranking relatively to each other in the following order: professor, adjunct professor, instructor, tutor, assistant. Lecturers and curators may also be appointed. A lecturer is an officer whose connection with the University is temporary, or whose service is not continuous. A curator is an officer having charge of collections. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to the office of prize lecturer in the School of Political Science.

Precedence. § 13. The professors in the several Faculties shall take precedence according to the dates of their appointments.

Salaries. § 14. The salaries of the following named officers shall attach to the grade, and shall be as follows:

a. The salary of every instructor when first appointed shall be sixteen hundred dollars a year, with an annual increase of one hundred dollars, up to two thousand dollars.

b. The salary of every tutor when first appointed shall be one thousand dollars a year, with an annual increase of one hundred dollars, up to fifteen hundred dollars.

c. The salary of every assistant shall be five hundred dollars; but this section shall not apply to the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

Payment of Salaries. § 15. Payment of salaries shall be made quarterly on the 30th of September, 31st of December, 31st of March, and 30th of June (which are hereby designated as the "usual quarter-days"), in each case to date, and at no other times.

Other Employment. § 16. No officer of instruction shall be employed in any occupation which interferes with the thorough, efficient, and earnest performance of the duties of his office.

Barnard College. § 17. Professors and others in the service of the University may lecture or teach in Barnard College with the consent of the President, and not otherwise.

Leave of Absence. § 18. Each professor shall be entitled once in every seven years to a year's leave of absence on half-pay, such year to count as a year of service to the University, provided, however, that not more than four professors shall be absent at any one time, and that the President shall adjust such leaves of absence.

Emeritus Professors. § 19. Any professor who has been fifteen successive years or upwards in the service of the University, and who is also sixty-five years of age, or over, may at his own request, signified to the President in writing, or upon the motion of the Trustees, be made an emeritus professor on half-pay from the beginning of the next succeeding fiscal year.

Emeritus Professors.

§ 20. Emeritus professors shall have no stated duties, but their names shall be included in the printed lists of the Faculties, and they shall be officially invited to attend all public exercises and Commencements.

CHAPTER IV.

OFFICERS OF ADMINISTRATION.

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent, under the direction of the President, to take charge of the boiler house and of the heating, ventilating, and lighting apparatus; to employ, control, and discharge all persons employed in and about the said boiler house and apparatus, and all janitors, watchmen, and other subordinates and servants; and he shall have care of the University grounds and buildings and of the furniture and fixtures therein, and shall see that the same are kept in good and proper order and in sufficient repair, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be designated by the President.

Superintendent of Bldgs. and Grounds.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the University to perform such duties as may be designated by the President.

Secretary and Asst. Secretary of the University.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the Bursar, under the instructions of the Treasurer, to pay charges against such of the appropriations as may be designated by the Treasurer; to collect the fees of students, except of the students of the College of Physicians and Surgeons; to receive all money on account of the Treasurer due and payable at the University, except such as may become due at the College of Physicians and Surgeons; to keep proper vouchers for all payments and proper accounts of all his transactions, in conformity with the instructions of the Treasurer; and generally to be the representative of the Treasurer at the University. It shall be the duty of the Bursar, under the directions of the President, to maintain and conduct the Bureau of Supplies; on and after July 1, 1897, to take charge of the registration of all students, except the students of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and generally to keep such records and to furnish such copies of the same as the President may direct; and to take charge of and be responsible for the matriculation books of the Bursar.

- Bursar. University except such as may be kept at the College of Physicians and Surgeons.
- Registrar. § 4. It shall be the duty of the Registrar of the College of Physicians and Surgeons to take charge of the office work, and to perform such clerical duties as may be designated by the President, or by the Dean of the Medical Faculty.

CHAPTER V.

FOUNDATIONS.

- Scholarships. § 1. A Scholarship may be founded in the College or in any School by the payment to the Treasurer of not less than three thousand dollars, and the person founding the same, his representatives and assigns, shall be entitled to have always one student educated in the College or in such School free of all charges for tuition. The Scholarship shall bear such title as the founder may designate, subject to the approval of the Trustees.
- Fellowships. § 2. A Fellowship may be founded by the payment to the Treasurer of not less than ten thousand dollars for the encouragement of advanced study and original research in such subject or subjects, and bearing such title as the founder may designate, subject to the approval of the Trustees.
- Professorships. § 3. A Professorship may be founded by the payment to the Treasurer of not less than one hundred thousand dollars to provide instruction in such subject, and bearing such title as the founder may designate, subject to the approval of the Trustees.

CHAPTER VI.

THE LIBRARY.

- Librarian. § 1. The Librarian shall be the executive officer of the Library, under the direction of the President, and it shall be his duty to see that the Statutes and all resolutions, rules, and regulations relating to the Library are properly enforced. He shall be the custodian of the property of the Library, and of its files, records, books, and papers, and shall have the general charge and control of the Library and the rooms containing it, and also of the expenditures of all moneys appropriated by the Trustees for the purchase of books and supplies therefor; he shall appoint all needed assistants and subordinate officers, and fix their titles, duties, and compensations, provided that the total amount shall not exceed the appropriation of the Trustees for that purpose; he shall make and enforce by suitable penalties any needed rules and regulations relating to the Library, its readers, officers, or servants. All bills on account of the Library, for books, periodicals, binding, administration, or other expenses, shall be examined and certified by the Librarian, or, in his absence, by the deputy duly appointed, and shall be countersigned by the President, before being paid.

Librarian.

§ 2. All books, maps, charts, and other printed matter heretofore or hereafter purchased for the use of any department shall be deemed to be a part of the Library, and shall be stamped and catalogued as such, and such books shall be kept in the Library when not required in the respective departments for special uses; and their presence shall be periodically verified and their condition inspected by the Librarian or one of his assistants. Such books shall be purchased by the Librarian and paid for out of the general book fund, except that books may be purchased by the head of a department and charged to the appropriation of that department, such purchase having first been approved by the President.

Books, how Purchased and Catalogued.

§ 3. Books shall not be loaned except in conformity with regulations prescribed by the Committee of the Trustees on the Library.

Loan of Books.

§ 4. No less than three copies of all reports and other matter printed by authority of the Trustees, except such as may be printed for their exclusive use, shall be deposited in the Library.

Official Reports.

§ 5. All gifts of money to the Library shall be paid to the Treasurer, who shall disburse the same, subject to the approval of the President, for the purpose, if any, specified by the donor, without special vote or appropriation; and such gifts made without condition shall be used for buying books, which shall be marked with the donor's name.

Gifts.

§ 6. A copy of every thesis, essay, oration, or other written matter which shall be delivered at Commencement, or upon which any prize or degree shall be awarded, shall be deposited in the Library in printed or written form suitable for binding.

Theses and Essays.

CHAPTER VII.

THE CHAPEL.

Attendance. § 1. Attendance upon the Chapel services shall be voluntary, but all persons connected with the University, whether as officers or students, shall be invited to take part in such services.

Chaplains. § 2. It shall be the duty of the President to make suitable arrangements for the conduct of the Chapel services with such clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church as he may think proper.

CHAPTER VIII.

THE COLLEGE.

Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of the College shall consist of the President and the heads of the Departments of Astronomy, Botany, Chemistry, English Language and Literature, Geology, Germanic Languages and Literature, Greek, History, Latin, Literature, Mathematics, Mechanics, Philosophy, Physics, Political Economy, Rhetoric, Romance Languages and Literature, and Zoölogy, and of such other professors as may be assigned to this Faculty by the Trustees.

Admission. § 2. No student shall be admitted to the Freshman Class, at its formation, unless he shall have attained the age of fifteen years; nor to a more advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age; but this rule may be dispensed with when, in the opinion of the Dean, there are sufficient reasons to justify its relaxation.

Certificate of Character. § 3. Every candidate for admission shall be required to present, before examination, a certificate of good moral character from his last teacher, or from some citizen in good standing; and students from other colleges shall be required to bring certificates from such colleges of honorable discharge.

Classes. § 4. There shall be four classes of students, to be designated respectively as the Freshman Class, the Sophomore Class, the Junior Class, and the Senior Class. The course of study of each of these classes shall occupy a year, and the entire course four years.

Degree. § 5. Every student who shall have completed the entire course of four years, and shall have passed satisfactorily all the examinations required of him, shall be qualified to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

§ 6. A prize to be known as the "Alumni Prize," of fifty dollars in money or its equivalent at the option of the receiver, established by the Association of the Alumni of Columbia College, shall be awarded annually to the most faithful and deserving student of the graduating class, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Association and the Faculty, so long as such Association shall continue to maintain the same.

Alumni
Prize.

§ 7. Two prizes, founded, through the Rev. John McVickar, D.D., by the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning, to be known respectively as the "Society's Greek Seminary Prize," of thirty dollars, and the "Society's English Seminary Prize," of twenty dollars, shall be annually competed for among such members of the graduating class as shall have given in their names to the President, at least one month previous to such competition, as candidates for the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church; each student giving in his name as competitor to designate the prize for which he contends, and to be confined to the choice then made. The examination for each prize shall be held publicly in the Chapel, and separate from the general examination. The examination for the prize in Greek shall be on:

McVickar

a. The Epistles of the New Testament (in Greek) "ad aperturam libri."

b. On some one of the early Greek fathers, to be designated at the time of noticing the prize, or, if none be designated, then upon some portion of Chrysostom or Athanasius, at the choice of the student. The decision shall be with the President and the Professor of Greek.

The examination for the prize in English shall consist in the production of an essay (to be publicly read, or not, as the President may determine), of the ordinary length of a pulpit discourse, on some subject connected with the course of Evidences on which the class has been engaged; such subject to be selected by the Professor of the Evidences, and given out by him at the time of notice; and the prize to be adjudged, as before, by the President, and the professor of that branch; such decision to have respect to:

- a. The general ability and soundness of the essay;
- b. Its logical and demonstrative form; and
- c. The pure Saxon style and idiom in which it is written.

The names of the successful candidates shall be enrolled in a suitable book, to be provided for that purpose, lettered appropriately, and kept in the Library; shall be announced with other honors on Commencement Day, and also recorded honorably in the Society's books.

Chanler Prize. § 8. A prize to be known as the "Chanler Historical Prize," of the value of fifty dollars, shall be awarded annually to the member of the Senior Class who shall be the author of the best original manuscript essay in English prose on the History of Civil Government in America, or some other historical subject to be determined by the Faculty. The subject for the prize shall be announced on or before November first, and the essays shall be submitted to the President on or before May first in each year.

CHAPTER IX.

SCHOOL OF LAW.

Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of Law shall consist of the President and the Professors of Law.

Lectures. § 2. The Faculty shall have power to arrange with suitable persons for the delivery of lectures on special topics, provided the expense so incurred shall not exceed the appropriation therefor; but the Faculty shall from time to time report to the Trustees the names of all such lecturers and a list of the topics.

Admission. § 3. No student shall be admitted to the first year of the curriculum unless he shall have attained the age of eighteen years; nor to a more advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age; but this rule may be dispensed with when, in the opinion of the Dean, there are sufficient reasons to justify its relaxation.

Entrance Examination. § 4. Graduates of colleges and scientific schools in good standing, and all persons who have received the Regents' academic diploma shall be admitted without examination. All other candidates for a degree must comply with such requirements as may be prescribed by the Faculty.

Advanced Standing. § 5. No candidate for a degree shall be admitted to advanced standing until he shall have passed a satisfactory examination upon the studies pursued by the class to which he seeks admission, and no candidate shall receive a degree unless he shall have passed the third year in this School.

Bachelor's Degree. § 6. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws shall be divided into three classes. The course of study of each of these classes shall occupy a year, and the entire course three years. Every student who shall have completed the entire course of three years, and shall have passed satisfactorily all the examinations required of him, shall be qualified to receive the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Should the student not have attained the age of twenty-one years at the time of graduating, the delivery of the diploma shall be deferred until he shall have attained that age. Bachelor's Degree.

§ 7. The degree of Master of Laws may be conferred upon persons who have received the degree of Bachelor of Laws after having pursued the study of law for three years in some college or law school offering a course of study of three years leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws, and who shall have pursued, for at least one year thereafter, as a member of the School of Law, a course of study provided by the Faculty, and shall have passed satisfactory examinations therein. The Faculty of Law may, however, in its discretion, require any applicant for the degree of Master of Laws to pass satisfactory examinations in the work offered by the School of Law of Columbia University for the degree of Bachelor of Laws as a condition of entering upon the course of study for the degree of Master of Laws. Master's Degree.

§ 8. A student who shall not have pursued the full course of study shall be entitled to a certificate, stating the duration of his attendance and the degree of his attainment. Certificate.

CHAPTER X.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE.

The following Statutes are enacted in accordance with the terms of the agreement forming the basis of union between the College of Physicians and Surgeons and The Trustees of Columbia College in the City of New York: Agreement of Union.

§ 1. The Faculty of the College of Physicians and Surgeons shall consist of the President and of the occupants of the eight chairs of Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Pathology, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, Practice of Medicine, Surgery, and Obstetrics. Faculty.

§ 2. All officers of instruction shall be appointed by the Trustees after nomination by the said Faculty. Appointments.

§ 3. Matriculates who shall have declared themselves in writing not to be candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine in the College of Physicians and Surgeons may be admitted as special students upon such conditions, other than those relating to fees, as the Faculty shall prescribe. No special student shall revoke the said declaration and become a candidate for the said degree, unless, subsequently to the said revocation, he shall have fulfilled all the requirements for graduation in Medicine. Special Students.

Admission to Second Year.

§ 4. No matriculate shall be admitted to the second year of the medical curriculum who shall not have pursued satisfactorily such a course at some other Medical School as shall have been recognized by the Faculty as an equivalent for the first year of the medical curriculum at the College of Physicians and Surgeons. No course of another Medical School shall be so recognized which shall have begun during the same calendar year as the session to which admission is sought.

Classes.

§ 5. There shall be four classes of students. The course of study of each of these classes shall occupy a year, and the entire course four years.

Degree.

§ 6. Every candidate shall be entitled to be recommended for the degree of Doctor of Medicine who, being of good moral character, shall have—

a. Filed duly a medical student's certificate of the Regents of the University of the State of New York, showing him to have complied with Chapter 467 of the Laws of 1889, entitled "An act to provide for the preliminary education of medical students," and the laws amendatory thereof;

b. Completed the required curriculum;

c. Passed satisfactorily all the examinations required of him.

Should a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Medicine not have attained the age of twenty-one years at the time of graduating, the delivery of the diploma shall be deferred until he shall have attained that age.

Harsen
Clinical
Prizes.

§ 7. Three prizes, to be known as the "Harsen Prize for Clinical Reports," of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars, seventy-five dollars, and twenty-five dollars, respectively, together with Harsen prize medals and diplomas, shall be awarded annually for the three best reports in writing, by students in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, of the clinical instruction given at the New York Hospital during any four consecutive months of the year ending on Commencement Day, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Faculty.

Harsen
Proficiency
Prizes.

§ 8. Ten prizes, to be known as the "Harsen Prizes for Proficiency at Examination": three, of the value of five hundred dollars, three hundred dollars, and two hundred dollars, respectively; and seven, of the value of twenty-five dollars each; together with Harsen prize medals and diplomas, shall be awarded annually to the ten members of each graduating class in the College of Physicians and Surgeons who at their examination for the degree of Doctor of Medicine shall show the highest proficiency in all the branches combined; the three most meritorious receiving the first, second, and third prizes, respectively; subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by a committee consisting of the President of the College of Physicians and Surgeons,* the President of the Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and a resident alumnus selected by them: and such committee shall have power to determine the relative merits of the competitors and to make the awards.

Harsen
Proficiency
Prizes.

§ 9. A prize, to be known as the "Alumni Association Prize," of five hundred dollars, shall be awarded biennially to the graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons who shall submit the best medical essay on any subject, provided such essay shall be deemed sufficiently meritorious, and shall be open to competition in alternate years with the "Cartwright Prize," subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Alumni Association, so long as the same shall be maintained by such Association.

Prize.

§ 10. A prize, to be known as the "Cartwright Prize," of five hundred dollars, shall be awarded biennially to the person (not necessarily a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons) who shall submit the best medical essay on any subject, provided such essay shall be deemed sufficiently meritorious, and shall be open to competition in alternate years with the "Alumni Association Prize," subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Alumni Association.

Cartwright
Prize.

§ 11. A prize, to be known as the "Stevens Triennial Prize," of two hundred dollars, shall be awarded triennially to the person (not necessarily a graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons) who shall submit the best medical essay on any subject, including the results of original research by the writer upon the subject chosen; subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by a committee consisting of the President of the College of Physicians and Surgeons,* the President of the Alumni Association, and the Professor of Physiology: and such committee shall have power to determine the relative merits of the essays submitted, and to award or withhold the prize.

Stevens
Prize.

§ 12. A prize, to be known as the "Joseph Mather Smith Prize," of one hundred dollars, shall be awarded annually to the graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons who shall submit the best essay, if sufficiently meritorious, on a subject designated by a committee consisting of the President of the College of Physicians and Surgeons,* the President of

Smith
Prize.

* Chapter 97, Laws of 1894, declares the Dean of the Medical Faculty of Columbia College and his successors to be the successors in office of the President of the Managing Board of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, with all the rights, powers, and duties of such President under any act of the Legislature, or by deed or will.

- Smith Prize. the Alumni Association, and the Professor of Pathology and Practical Medicine, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by such committee, who shall have power to determine the relative merits of the essays submitted, and to award or withhold the prize.
- Clark Scholarship. § 13. A scholarship, to be known as the "Alonzo Clark Scholarship," of nine hundred dollars, or so much thereof as the income of the fund set apart therefor shall suffice to pay, shall be awarded annually to such person as the Faculty may appoint, who shall devote himself to study under their guidance, with the special purpose of discovering new facts in medical science.

CHAPTER XI.

SCHOOLS OF APPLIED SCIENCE

- Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of Applied Science shall consist of the President, and the professors in the Departments of Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Engineering, Geology, Mineralogy, Mining, Metallurgy, and Architecture, and any other professors who may be specifically assigned to this Faculty by the Trustees.
- This Faculty shall have charge of the Schools of Applied Science, to wit: the School of Mines, the School of Chemistry, the School of Engineering, and the School of Architecture, and in addition thereto, each department represented in it may, with the approval of the Faculty, offer such University courses as in its judgment will develop most advantageously the study of its specialty.
- Use of Title. § 2. No officer of the Schools of Applied Science shall use the official title of any such School or of the University, or refer to his professional connection therewith, in any opinion or certificate which he may give as to the merits or claim, either relative or positive, of any association or company engaged in manufacturing, mining, or other practical business, or to any scientific or practical invention, without the approval or assent of the Trustees.
- Age of Admission. § 3. No student shall be admitted to the first class of any of the Schools of Applied Science, at the formation of the class, unless he shall have attained the age of eighteen years; nor to a more advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age; but this rule may be dispensed with when, in the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty of Applied Science, there are sufficient reasons to justify its relaxation.
- Course of Study. § 4. There shall be in each School of Applied Science four classes of students, to be designated respectively as the First, Second, Third, and Fourth Class. The course of study of each of these classes shall occupy a year, and the entire course four years. Course of Study.

§ 5. The School of Mines shall conduct the courses in Mining and in Metallurgy, leading respectively to the degrees of Engineer of Mines and Metallurgical Engineer. School of Mines.

The School of Chemistry shall conduct the course in Analytical and Applied Chemistry, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. School of Chemistry.

The School of Engineering shall conduct the courses in Civil Engineering, in Sanitary Engineering, in Mechanical Engineering, and in Electrical Engineering. The first two of these courses shall lead to the degree of Civil Engineer, and the others respectively to the degree of Mechanical Engineer and Electrical Engineer. School of Engineering.

The School of Architecture shall conduct the course in Architecture leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science. School of Architecture.

At the beginning of the first year, each student in any of the Schools of Applied Science shall elect which of the courses above mentioned he intends to pursue, and, after having made his election, he shall not be permitted to abandon the course chosen in order to take up another without the consent of the President and the Dean of the Faculty of Applied Science.

§ 6. Every student who shall have completed the entire course of four years and shall have passed satisfactorily all the examinations required of him, shall be qualified to receive either the degree of Engineer of Mines, Metallurgical Engineer, Civil Engineer, Mechanical Engineer, Electrical Engineer, or Bachelor of Science. Degrees

§ 7. There shall be the following summer schools: a Summer School in Surveying, a Summer School in Practical Geodesy, a Summer School in Practical Mining, a Summer School in Mechanical Engineering, and a Summer School in Geology, all of which shall be under the direction of the Faculty of Applied Science, which shall designate an officer to take charge of each of such schools, shall prescribe the requirements for attendance, and shall make such regulations therefor as they may deem proper. Summer Schools.

§ 8. Specimens from the geological, zoological, botanical, mineralogical, metallurgical, chemical, architectural, and other collections, shall not be loaned, except by special permission of the Trustees. Loan of Specimens.

CHAPTER XII.

SCHOOL OF POLITICAL SCIENCE.

Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of Political Science shall consist of the President and the professors engaged in the course of instruction.

Candidates for a Degree. § 2. Candidates for a degree must have successfully pursued a course of study in the College, or in some other institution maintaining an equivalent course of study, to the close of the Junior year, or must pass a satisfactory examination upon the studies of the first three years of the College.

Course of Study. § 3. The course of study shall be designed to prepare young men for the duties of public life, and shall embrace the history of the literature of the political sciences; the general constitutional history of Europe; the special constitutional history of England and the United States; the Roman law and the jurisprudence of existing codes derived therefrom; the comparative constitutional law of European states and of the United States; the comparative constitutional law of the different States of the American Union; the history of diplomacy; international law; systems of administrations, state and national, of the United States; comparison of American and European systems of administration; political economy and statistics.

Degree. § 4. Students of the School who shall satisfactorily complete the studies of one year shall be qualified, on the examination and recommendation of the Faculty, with the concurrence of the Faculty of the College, to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

Seligman Prize. § 5. A prize, to be known as the "Edwin Seligman Prize in Political Science," of one hundred and fifty dollars, shall be awarded annually to the student in the School of Political Science who shall produce the best original essay of the year upon some topic in political economy, subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by a committee appointed by the Faculty of the School, so long as Professor Seligman shall continue to maintain the same.

Prize Lectureships. § 6. There shall be three Prize Lectureships in the School of Political Science to be governed by the following rules:

a. At the close of each academic year a Prize Lectureship shall be awarded to that member of the Academy attached to the School of Political Science who (being a graduate of such School or a graduate of the School of Law of this University, who has taken a two years' course in the School of Political Science) shall, during the scholastic year then ending, have commended himself to the Faculty as being the most deserving of such distinction; and in making their decision the Faculty shall take into account a thesis or original work on some subject connected with history or political science, but such thesis need not be the sole ground of selection.

Prize Lectureships.

b. The persons appointed to such Lectureships shall severally hold the same for the period of three years and may be re-appointed at the expiration of such period. They shall severally be entitled to receive the sum of five hundred dollars per annum during their incumbency, payable at the expiration of the year, upon the certificate of the Dean showing that they have performed satisfactorily the duty prescribed by the following rule:

c. It shall be the duty of the incumbent of each of the said Lectureships to deliver an original course of twenty lectures in each academic year in the School, upon some subject or subjects to be designated by the Faculty. Such lectures shall be delivered at such times and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Faculty.

d. Vacancies occurring in any of said Lectureships by death, resignation, or otherwise, may be filled for the residue of the unexpired term in the manner prescribed in rule a. The incumbents of said Lectureships shall be liable to removal by the Trustees on the recommendation of the Faculty; and such removal shall work a forfeiture of the right thereafter to receive the compensation provided in rule b, or any part thereof.

§ 7. A prize, to be known as the "Robert N. Toppan Prize," of one hundred and fifty dollars, shall be awarded annually to the member of the School who shall pass the best written examination upon a paper prepared by the professor in charge of the Department of Constitutional Law, so long as the said Robert N. Toppan shall continue to maintain the same.

Toppan Prize.

§ 8. A prize to be known as the "Bennett Prize," consisting of the income to be derived from the fund heretofore established by James Gordon Bennett, shall be awarded annually at Commencement to the undergraduate member of the Senior Class, or special student of similar standing, who shall have taken satisfactory courses in Political Science, and who shall have prepared the best essay in English prose upon some subject of contemporaneous interest in the domestic or foreign policy of the United States, provided that no award shall be made for any essay that is defective in English composition. The subject shall be selected, the rules of competition formulated, and the decision rendered by the Faculty of Political Science.

Bennett Prize.

CHAPTER XIII.

SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY.

- Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of Philosophy shall consist of the President and the professors engaged in the course of instruction.
- Candidates for a Degree. § 2. Candidates for a degree must have successfully pursued a course of study in the College, or in some other institution maintaining an equivalent course of study, to the close of the Junior year, or must pass a satisfactory examination upon the studies of the first three years of the College.
- Course of Study. § 3. The course of study shall embrace instruction in Logic; Psychology; Ethics; History of Philosophy; Pedagogics; the Greek Language and Literature, including Epigraphy and Archæology; the Latin Language and Literature, including Epigraphy and Archæology; the English Language and Literature, including Anglo-Saxon and Gothic; the Germanic Languages and Literatures; the Romance Languages and Literatures; Sanskrit and Zend; and the Semitic Languages.
- Degree. § 4. Students who shall satisfactorily complete the studies of one year shall be qualified, on examination and the recommendation of the Faculty, with the concurrence of the Faculty of the College, to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

CHAPTER XIV.

SCHOOL OF PURE SCIENCE.

- Faculty. § 1. The Faculty of Pure Science shall consist of the President and of all professors who give instruction leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in the Departments of Mathematics, Mechanics, Physics, Chemistry, Mineralogy, Astronomy, Geology, Zoölogy, and Botany, and of such other professors as may be specifically assigned to this Faculty by the Trustees.
- Any member of this Faculty, who is also a member of another Faculty that elects a delegate to the University Council, shall vote for this purpose in one Faculty only. He shall notify the Secretary of the Faculty of Pure Science, when called upon to do so, in which Faculty he elects to exercise this right, and, thereafter, he shall not be allowed to vote for a delegate to the University Council in a different Faculty without the formal consent of the Trustees.
- Candidates for a Degree. § 2. Candidates for a degree in this School must have successfully pursued a course of study in the College, or in some other institution maintaining an equivalent course of study, to the close of the Junior year, or must pass a satisfactory examination upon the studies of the first three years of the College. Candidates for a Degree.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the Faculty to give university instruction in the several subjects represented by the departments embraced in it; and in addition, to give in the Schools of Applied Science, whatever instruction may be needed in such subjects. University Instruction.

§ 4. Students of the School who shall satisfactorily complete the studies of one year shall be qualified, on examination and the recommendation of the Faculty, with the concurrence of the Faculty of the College, to receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Degree.

CHAPTER XV.

STUDENTS.

§ 1. Every student will be required, as a condition of admission to the College or to any School, to write in the matriculation book, to be kept in the President's office or wherever the President may direct, his own name, and the name, place of abode, and post-office address of his father or guardian, together with a statement of the College or School or Schools in which he proposes to conduct his studies. Matriculation.

§ 2. No student shall be required to matriculate more than once while a member of the University, but at the beginning of each academic year each student shall file with the President a statement containing the information required by the foregoing section. Registration.

§ 3. An honorable discharge shall always be granted to any student in good standing who may desire to withdraw from the University; but no student, under the age of twenty-one years, shall be entitled to a discharge without the assent of his parent or guardian, furnished in writing to the President. Discharge.

§ 4. Any matriculated student may attend any combination of courses permitted by the President, by and with the advice of the University Council. Such student shall pay the fee proper to the College or to the School in which he takes the greatest number of hours. Attendance.

§ 5. Special students may be admitted in the College and in all the Schools, under regulations prescribed by the several Faculties. Special
Students.

§ 6. Students in other institutions designated for the purpose by the Trustees may, upon the nomination of the heads of such institutions respectively, and with the approval of the President, attend lectures in the College or in any of the Schools, without the payment of fees. Students in other Institutions.

For the use of the cabinets only . . . . .	25	Special Fees (Applied Science).
For the use of the drawing academy only . . . . .	25
For the use of the laboratories or either of them . . . . .	50
For candidates for admission to advanced standing who attend the Summer School in Surveying . . . . .	35

The President and Treasurer are authorized to determine the fees to be paid in special cases, for partial attendance, upon the basis of the fees hereinbefore specified.

§ 2. The matriculation fee shall be paid before the entrance examination. Examination fees shall be paid in all cases before examination.

§ 3. Annual tuition fees may be paid in equal instalments at the beginning of each session of the academic year, except that in the case of students in the College of Physicians and Surgeons such fees shall be paid in full at the beginning of the academic year, and except that whenever the total amount of a student's tuition fees shall not exceed one hundred dollars the full amount shall be paid at the beginning of the academic year, or at entrance.

§ 4. No candidate for a degree in the College or in any School shall be entitled to receive the same until he shall have discharged all his dues to the University.

§ 5. Free or reduced tuition may be granted in the College and in the Schools of Law and Applied Science in special cases, on the ground of character, ability and need combined, but no reduced fee shall be for less than fifty per cent. of the

Free and Reduced

statutory charge, and the total number of students receiving free or reduced tuition under any Faculty shall not exceed ten per cent. of the total number of students registered with such Faculty.

Scholarships.

§ 6. A limited number of scholarships of the annual value of one hundred and fifty dollars may be awarded annually by the Faculties of the College and of the Schools of Law and Applied Science to applicants who have been connected with the University for at least one year, and who have given evidence of special fitness to study under the Faculty to which the application is made. The holders of these scholarships must pay tuition and all other fees. Each Faculty may fix the number of scholarships which it will award, provided that the number of scholarships awarded by any Faculty, together with the free and reduced tuitions granted, shall not exceed ten per cent. of the total number of students registered with such Faculty. No free or reduced tuition shall be granted to any student during the first year of his connection with the University.

Free
Students.

§ 7. Free students and students granted a reduction of tuition fees shall not be exempt from the payment of fees for matriculation, for extra examination, and for examination for a degree.

Fellows.

§ 8. Fellows shall be exempt from the payment of all fees.

CHAPTER XVII.

FELLOWSHIPS.

University
Fellowships.

§ 1. There shall be twenty-four University Fellowships, each of the value of five hundred dollars a year, but additional University Fellows may be appointed in cases where the original appointee waives the emolument of the fellowship while accepting the honor of the appointment, and in cases where a University Fellow desires reappointment without emolument. Such fellowships shall be awarded by the Council to those applicants who give evidence of special fitness to pursue courses of higher study and original investigation, and the competition therefor shall be open to graduates of all colleges and scientific schools. Vacancies occurring in any of such fellowships shall be filled in the same manner in which original appointments are made.

Term of Office.

§ 2. Fellows appointed under the foregoing section shall hold office for one year, and may be reappointed for two terms of one year each, and no more.

Tyndall
Fellowship.

§ 3. There shall be a fellowship to be known as the "John Tyndall Fellowship for the Encouragement of Research in Physics," which shall be held by some suitable person, who shall be either a graduate of or a student in the University, but not necessarily a candidate for a degree. Such Fellow shall be appointed by the Council upon the recommendation of the head of the Department of Physics. Such appointment shall always be for the term of one year only, but the Fellow, for the time being, shall be eligible for appointment from year to year upon like recommendation. The Fellow so appointed shall be entitled to receive during his term of office the net income of the capital sum constituting the endowment, to be paid in four quarterly instalments on the usual quarter-days, upon the certificate of the President; and the Trustees guarantee that such net income will amount to at least six hundred and forty-eight dollars a year, being six per cent. upon ten thousand eight hundred dollars, the fund presented to the University by Professor Tyndall.

Tyndall
Fellowship.

§ 4. There shall be a fellowship to be known as the "Barnard Fellowship for Encouraging Scientific Research," which shall be held by a graduate of the College, or of the Schools of Applied Science, who has evinced decided aptness for physical investigation and who may be disposed to devote himself to such investigation for some years continuously. Such Fellow shall be appointed by the Council upon the joint recommendation of the Faculty of the College and of the Faculty of Applied Science. Such appointment shall be for the term of one year only, but the Fellow, for the time being, shall be eligible to reappointment from year to year upon like joint recommendation. The Fellow so appointed shall be entitled to receive during his term of office the net income of the capital sum constituting the endowment, to be paid to him in four equal quarterly instalments on the usual quarter-days, upon the certificate of the President.

Barnard
Fellowship.

§ 5. It shall be the duty of a Fellow appointed under section three or four to devote himself faithfully to the investigation of some subject in physical science at this University, or at some other in this country or abroad, under the supervision of some known physicist, approved by the President and the head of the Department of Physics. He shall make a report quarterly to the President, giving an account of the work in which he has been engaged during the three months preceding; which report shall be certified by the physicist superintending and directing him. In case of failure faithfully to fulfil the obligations imposed upon him, such Fellow shall forfeit all privileges and emoluments conferred upon

Duties of Tyndall and Barnard
Fellows.

him by his appointment to the fellowship, and the Council may at any time declare the fellowship to be vacant.

Columbia
Fellowship.

§ 6. There shall be a fellowship to be known as the "Columbia Fellowship in Architecture," which shall be open to all graduates of the School of Architecture less than thirty years of age, and shall be awarded under such rules and regulations as shall from time to time be determined by the President and the Professor of Architecture. Holders of such fellowship shall devote the income thereof to foreign study and travel in accordance with plans prepared by themselves and approved by the President and such Professor, and shall upon return present a written report and exhibit drawings in the School of Architecture. Such fellowship shall be awarded in the spring of every even-numbered year, and payments thereof shall be made by the Treasurer on the certificate of the Professor of Architecture, endorsed by the President, in four equal instalments of three hundred and twenty-five dollars each on the usual quarter-days.

McKim
Fellowships.

§ 7. There shall be two fellowships to be known as the "McKim Fellowships in Architecture," which shall be awarded upon like conditions and for like purposes as are specified in the foregoing section, but such fellowships shall be awarded in the spring of every uneven-numbered year, and payments thereof shall be made by the Treasurer, on the certificate of the Professor of Architecture, endorsed by the President, in four equal instalments of two hundred and fifty dollars each on the usual quarter-days.

Alumni
Fellowships.

§ 8. There shall be three fellowships in the College of Physicians and Surgeons, to be known as the "Fellowships of the Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons," the candidates for such fellowships to be designated and appointed by the Association on such conditions as may be approved by it. Each fellowship shall be of the value of five hundred dollars a year for two years, to be paid quarterly by the Association to the Treasurer of the University and by said Treasurer to each Fellow, so long as such Association shall continue to maintain the same.

Drisler
Fellowship.

§ 9. In commemoration of the semi-centennial in the service of the University of Henry Drisler, LL.D., of the Class of 1839, who has held in this University the chairs of both Latin and Greek, there shall be a fellowship in Classical Philology of the value of five hundred dollars a year, to be known as the "Henry Drisler Fellowship in Classical Philology."

Class of '70
Fellowship.

§ 10. There shall be a University Fellowship to be known as the "Class of '70 Fellowship," of the annual value of five

- hundred dollars, which, after the expiration of the term of the present incumbent, shall be filled by the University Council, and shall be subject to such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Statutes, as may be prescribed by the Council. Class of '70 Fellowship.
- § 11. No Fellow shall be allowed to accept remunerative employment except by permission of the President, and the acceptance of any such employment, without such permission, shall operate to vacate the fellowship. Remunerative Employment.
- § 12. All Fellows, except as hereinbefore provided, shall be required to pursue their studies during the term of their Fellowship at this University, unless permission be granted them by the President to study elsewhere. Place of Study.
- § 13. All Fellows shall be governed by such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Statutes, as may be prescribed by the Council. Regulations.
- § 14. The Treasurer may receive gifts of money for fellowships to run for one year or more, provided that no fellowship shall be created for less than five hundred dollars per annum. Such fellowship shall be filled by the University Council, and shall be subject to such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the Statutes, as may be prescribed by the Council. Annual Fellowships.

CHAPTER XVIII.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES.

- § 1. The Alumni Association of Columbia College shall be entitled to have always, in the College, four students to be instructed free of charge. Alumni Scholarships.
- § 2. The Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York shall be entitled to have always, in the College, two students in each class, to be instructed free of charge for tuition. S. P. R. L. Scholarships.
- § 3. The members of the several Faculties shall be entitled to have their sons educated in the College free of charge. Faculty Scholarships.
- § 4. There shall be offered annually, as a prize to the student passing the best entrance examination in the College, a free scholarship for the course of four years. Such scholarship shall be known as the "Alumni Competitive Scholarship," and the Faculty shall have power to fix the conditions under which such scholarship shall be awarded. Alumni Competitive Scholarship.
- § 5. The personal representatives of the late William B. Moffat, M.D., and their assigns shall be entitled to nominate Moffat Scholarships.

Moffat Scholarships. and have always two students in the College, to be instructed free of charge; and such scholarships shall be known as the "Moffat Scholarships."

Schermerhorn Scholarships. § 6. The nearest living male relative of the late John Jones Schermerhorn shall be entitled to nominate and have always five students in the College to be instructed free of charge; and such scholarships shall be known as the "Schermerhorn Scholarships."

Theological Seminary Scholarship. § 7. The scholarship in the General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church (heretofore placed at the disposal of the Trustees of Columbia College by the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York) shall be awarded upon the following conditions, to wit:

a. All candidates shall comply with the requirements for admission of the General Theological Seminary, and as candidates for the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and must have taken the degree of Bachelor of Arts and have been graduated with honors.

b. All candidates shall report themselves to the Education Committee of such society at least three months previous to the examination to be held by the Faculty for the purpose of awarding such scholarship.

Barnard Medal. § 8. A gold medal, to be known as the "Barnard Medal for Meritorious Service to Science," shall be awarded at Commencement at the close of every quinquennial period, dating from the 17th of July, 1889, to such person, if any, whether a citizen of the United States or of any other country, as shall within the five years next preceding have made such discovery in physical or astronomical science, or such novel application of science to purposes beneficial to the human race, as in the judgment of the National Academy of Sciences of the United States shall be esteemed most worthy of such honor.

Annual Scholarships. § 9. The Treasurer may receive gifts of money for scholarships for one or more years, provided that no such scholarship shall be for a less sum than the annual tuition fee of the College or of the School in which it is provided. Such scholarships shall be filled by the Faculty under whose care they properly come, and the scholars holding them shall pay all fees.

University Scholarships. § 10. In the Schools of Political Science, Philosophy, and Pure Science, there shall be thirty scholarships in all, each of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars, to be awarded only to students holding the first degree. These scholarships shall be known as "University Scholarships," and shall be awarded under regulations to be adopted by the University Council. The holders of University Scholarships must pay tuition and all other fees. University Scholarships.

§ 11. In addition to the University Scholarships established by the foregoing section, there shall be from and after July 1, 1896, two scholarships; from and after July 1, 1897, four scholarships; from and after July 1, 1898, six scholarships; and from and after July 1, 1899, eight scholarships, each of the annual value of one hundred and fifty dollars, which shall be known as the "President's University Scholarships." Such scholarships, which shall be for the term of one year, shall be filled by the University Council, and shall be governed in all respects by the regulations attached to the University Scholarships established by the preceding section, and by such further regulations as may from time to time be hereafter adopted by the Trustees. The holders of such scholarships may be reappointed upon the expiration of their terms upon such conditions as may be prescribed in the regulations. In case any one of said scholarships is not awarded in any year, or in case any such scholarship shall become vacant otherwise than by the graduation of the incumbent, an additional scholar may be appointed to fill such vacancy. An additional President's University Scholarship may annually be awarded in lieu of any of the Brooklyn Scholarships provided for in the following section, in case any of such Brooklyn Scholarships shall not be awarded or shall become vacant otherwise than by graduation of the incumbent, but such additional President's University Scholarship shall be awarded only for the period during which such Brooklyn Scholarship is vacant. The recipient of any such scholarship may, with the consent of the President, assign the income thereof to any properly qualified candidate without waiving his right to be designated as a "President's University Scholar." President's University Scholarships.

§ 12. There shall be in the College from and after July 1, 1896, three scholarships; from and after July 1, 1897, six scholarships; from and after July 1, 1898, nine scholarships; and from and after July 1, 1899, twelve scholarships, each of the annual value of one hundred and fifty dollars, which shall be known as the "Brooklyn Scholarships." Such scholarships shall be awarded under such regulations as the Faculty of the College shall establish, and the Trustees shall from time to time approve, to boys resident in Brooklyn and prepared for College in any school in Brooklyn, whether public or private, and shall be held for the full College course of four years. The holders thereof shall pay the tuition fee and all other fees. In case any one of said scholarships is not Brooklyn Scholarships.

awarded in any year, or in case any such scholarship shall become vacant otherwise than by the graduation of the incumbent, an additional scholar may be appointed to fill such vacancy. The recipient of any such scholarship may, with the consent of the Faculty of the College, assign the income thereof to any properly qualified candidate without waiving his right to be designated as a "Brooklyn scholar."

Stuart
Scholarships.

§ 13. There shall be two Scholarships in the College, to be known as the "Stuart Scholarships," in memory of Sidney Barculo Stuart, Class of '80, College, and Eugene Talman Stuart, Class of '81, College, founded by their grandmother, Cornelia A. Atwill, October, 1895; and the said Cornelia A. Atwill shall have the privilege of nominating the incumbents of such scholarships during her lifetime, and after her decease such nominations shall be made by the President and the Dean of the College, on such terms and conditions as they may from time to time impose.

Grant Squires
Prize.

§ 14. A prize, to be known as the "Grant Squires Prize," consisting of the income to be derived from the fund heretofore established by Grant Squires, of the Class of 1885, shall be awarded at Commencement at the close of every quinquennial period, dating from the 1st day of July, 1895, to such graduate, conducting an original investigation of a sociological character, as shall be adjudged most worthy by a committee of award, consisting of the President, the Professor of Sociology and one of the Professors of Political Economy, selected by the President. Such award shall be deemed to be a recognition of scientific ability and achievement, as well as an encouragement of research.

Loubat
Prizes.

§ 15. Two prizes, to be known as the "Loubat Prizes," of the value respectively of one thousand dollars and four hundred dollars, shall be awarded at Commencement at the close of every quinquennial period, dating from the 1st day of July, 1893, for the best work printed and published in the English language on the History, Geography Archæology, Ethnology, Philology or Numismatics of North America. The competition for such prizes shall be open to all persons, whether connected with the University or not, and whether citizens of the United States of America or of any other country.

CHAPTER XIX.

ACADEMIC COSTUME.

§ 1. The following described academic costume is adopted, to be worn upon all appropriate occasions, as indicating the several degrees and the Faculties to which they pertain. Costume.

Gowns. 1. Pattern.—Those commonly worn, with pointed sleeves for the Bachelor's degree, with long closed sleeves for the Master's degree, and with round open sleeves for the Doctor's degree. 2. Material.—Worsted stuff for the Bachelor's degree; silk for the Master's and Doctor's degrees. 3. Color.—Black. 4. Trimmings.—For the Bachelor's and Master's degrees the gowns are to be untrimmed. For the Doctor's degree the gown is to be faced down the front with black velvet, with bars of the same across the sleeves; or the facings and crossbars may be of velvet of the same color as the binding or edges of the hood, being distinctive of the Faculty to which the degree pertains. Gowns.

Hoods. 1. Pattern.—The pattern usually followed by colleges and universities save as modified below. 2. Material.—The same as that of the gown. 3. Color.—Black. 4. Length.—The length and form of the hood will indicate the degree, as follows: For the Bachelor's degree, the length shall be three-fourths that of the Master's degree. The Master's degree shall be of the customary length, not exceeding four feet; and the Doctor's degree shall be of the same length but have panels at the sides. 5. Linings.—The hoods shall be lined with the official colors of the University; light blue and white. 6. Trimmings.—The binding or edging, not more than six inches in width, to be of silk, satin or velvet, the color to be distinctive of the Faculty to which the degree pertains, thus: Faculty of Arts and Letters, white. Faculty of Theology, scarlet. Faculty of Law, purple. Faculty of Medicine, green. Faculty of Philosophy, dark blue. Faculty of Science, yellow. Faculty of Fine Arts, brown. Faculty of Music, pink. Hoods.

Caps. The caps shall be of the material and form generally called mortar-board caps. The color shall be black. The Doctor's cap may be of velvet. Each cap shall be ornamented with a long tassel attached to the middle point at the top. The tassel of the Doctor's cap may be, in whole or in part, of gold thread. Caps.

§ 2. Members of the governing body shall be entitled, during their term of office, to wear the gown of highest dignity—that of the Doctor's degree—together with the hood Trustees:

Members of the Faculties, and any person officially connected with the University who have been recipients of academic honors from other universities or colleges in good standing, may assume the academic costume corresponding to their degree, as described in the foregoing section, provided, that such right shall terminate if such persons shall cease to be connected with the University. The President and Deans of Faculties may adopt distinctive badges, not inconsistent with the costume hereinbefore described.

CHAPTER XX.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR.

- Vacation. § 1. There shall be a vacation in the College and in all the Schools to be fixed annually in advance by the University Council, but such vacation shall not begin earlier than the second Wednesday in June, nor extend beyond the first Monday in October, except by consent of the Trustees.
- Intermission. § 2. There shall be an intermission of the public lectures on Ash-Wednesday, on Good Friday, on public holidays established by law, and on such days in each year as may be recommended by the civil authority to be observed as days of fast or thanksgiving; and for two weeks, beginning on the fourth Monday in December, unless the fourth Monday shall fall later than the twenty-sixth day of the month, and in that case beginning with the third Monday.
- § 3. The President may, in extraordinary cases, grant an intermission for other days, not exceeding three days at any one time; and it shall be his duty to report the same at the next succeeding meeting of the Trustees, together with the object and the reason for granting such intermission.
- Terms. § 4. The number of terms in the College and in each School, and their duration, shall be fixed annually, in advance, by the University Council.
- Examinations. § 5. The dates for entrance and final examinations in the College and in the various Schools shall be fixed annually, in advance, by the University Council. Other examinations may be held at the pleasure of each Faculty.
- Commencement. § 6. There shall be an annual Commencement on a day to be fixed annually, in advance, by the University Council, when degrees shall be conferred.
- Baccalaureate Sermon. § 7. Commencement Week shall begin on the Sunday preceding Commencement Day with religious services, in which the officers and students of the University shall be invited to participate. Such services shall consist of the reading of morning or evening prayer, as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer, and the delivery of a baccalaureate sermon, the preacher thereof to be selected by the Trustees. The President shall have charge of the arrangements for such service.

CHAPTER XXII.

PUBLIC LECTURES AND MEETINGS.

Public
Lectures.

§ 1. Public lectures shall from time to time be delivered at the University or elsewhere during the academic year by such officers of the University or others as the President may think proper to invite, attendance upon which shall be either free or subject to a moderate charge as the President may determine, provided that the expense incurred for such lectures shall not exceed the amount appropriated therefor. All fees collected or received from persons attending such lectures shall be paid to the Treasurer, and form part of the general funds of the University.

University
Courses.
Auditors.

§ 2. All university courses under the Faculties of Political Science, Philosophy and Pure Science, subject to the consent of the professor delivering the course, and under regulations to be determined by the President, may be opened to the public upon the payment of the statutory fee. Persons attending courses under the provisions of this section and not matriculating shall be designated as "auditors."

Public
Meetings.

§ 3. The Association of the Alumni of Columbia College, the Alumni Association of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, the Association of the Alumni of the School of Mines, the Academy of Political Science, and other organizations approved by the President, may hold occasional meetings in the University buildings in such room or rooms as the President may designate, provided such meetings shall not interfere with the hours of instruction or the educational uses of the buildings.

CHAPTER XXIII.

AMENDMENTS.

Amendments.

§ 1. These Statutes shall not be amended, altered, or repealed, unless notice in writing of such proposed amendment, alteration, or repeal shall have been given at a previous meeting of the Trustees.
